How to get to Nitra

Nitra is easily accessible from the nearest international airports in Vienna (A), Budapest (HU), Prague (CZ) and Bratislava (SK).

From Vienna (Austria) – to Bratislava (40 km) – to Nitra (100 km) (total 140 km from Vienna to Nitra)

Just in front of the Arrivals door at the Vienna airport, there is the departure point for long distance coaches to Bratislava's "Mlynske Nivy" bus station. Look for Vienna – Bratislava stop. Purchase your ticket in a kiosk inside the arrivals terminal.

From Bratislava to Nitra

From Bratislava's main bus station "Mlynske Nivy" take a bus to Nitra bus station (cca 80 min.). There are many departures during the working days, little bit less during the weekends. Purchase your ticket from the bus driver.

From Budapest, Hungary – to Nove Zamky (120 km) – to Nitra (35 km)

From the Budapest airport go to West (Nyugati) railway station or East (Keleti) railway station. Take the train to Nove Zamky in Slovakia. In Nove Zamky, change to the local train to Nitra. (Cost about 3 000 HUF). In Nitra, the railway station is close to the bus station.

From Prague (Czech Republic) - to Bratislava, Slovakia (320 km) - to Nitra (100 km)

From Prague's main bus station "Florenc" there is a direct bus that leaves every night at 22:30 (10:30 p.m.) to Nitra, arriving at 5:30 a.m. The cost is about 400,-CZK. During the day, you will have to take a bus from Prague to Bratislava and then change to the bus to Nitra.

You can easily check all timetables, departures and arrivals on www.cp.sk

Tickets for most connections found via this website can also be purchased online.
