

Monitoring Approach

Results Questionnaire

Conclusion WP1

- Preferred definitions that are still being refined and
- Most of the experts support the two stage process foreseen for the monitoring procedure
- Selection of required parameters for the functional monitoring based on the preferred parameters in the questionnaire

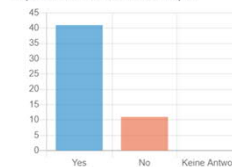

Which of the definitions for functional connectivity seems the most logical to you?

Which of the definitions for structural connectivity seems the most logical to you?

Does the division of the monitoring into the areas of monitoring of structural and functional connectivity represent a coherent concept?

What parameters and measurement methods are required for monitoring functional connectivity?

