

Invitation to an Online Workshop

From archaeological finds to reconstruction:

The challenges of reconstructing a Lusoria and the "Danuvina Alacris" in the framework of the EU Interreg DTP project "Living Danube Limes"

14 December 2020

Online Workshop (via Zoom)

What does it mean to reconstruct a boat historically if there is no complete antique wreck? In the contributions to the workshop, the conditions of the reconstruction, the models and finds in Mainz, previous reconstructions and the possibilities of reconstructing ship components that have not been preserved will be presented and discussed.

AGENDA

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 2:00 – 2:30 pm | Welcome and introduction: The EU Interreg Danube Transnational Programme Project "Living Danube Limes" and the construction of the Danuvina Alacris (Boris Dreyer, Erlangen) |
| 2:30 – 3:00 pm | "On the object-biography of a full-size boat replica from the early 1990ies, displayed in the Roemisch-Germanisches Zentralmuseum Mainz, and its aftermath" (Ronald Bockius, Mainz) |
| 3:15 – 3:30 pm | Discussion |
| 3:30 – 4:00 pm | On the status of the reconstruction of the "Danuvina Alacris" and the possibilities of participation (Boris Dreyer, Erlangen) |
| 4:15 – 5:00 pm | "Mast, Sail, Rope, Oar, Rudder. What Archaeological Artefacts can tell us about Equipment of Ships in Antiquity?" (Timm Weski, München) |
| 5:00 – 5:15 pm | Final discussion/outlook |

REGISTRATION

If you are interested, please register by sending your name to the following e-mail address:

zuv-roemerboot@fau.de

After your registration you will receive the zoom access data for the workshop by e-mail.

We intend to record this workshop. The event language is English, there will be a simultaneous translation into German.

Welcome and good insights!

Boris Dreyer