

Special Edition: International Women's Day 2020

RADAR: Making Road Safety Women's Business

I chose to work in road safety sector because as a road user, I realize that road safety is shared responsibility and I want to contribute as much as I can to improving it.

Paulina Milanova
Coordinator
Bulgarian Association for Road Safety

www.interreg-danube.eu/RADAR

Project co-funded by European Union funds (ERDF, IPA, ENI).

Why did you choose to work in road safety sector?

I chose to work in road safety sector, because as a road user, I realize that road safety is shared responsibility and I want to contribute as much as I can to improving it.

In your opinion, why is it important that more women take up road safety challenges in the near future?

In my opinion one of the reasons is because unlike men, women pay more attention to every detail, to small things that undoubtedly affect the overall picture. As with road safety - it consists of many components, which by themselves are extremely important for the formation of safe road infrastructure.

What is your impact as a woman in projects such as RADAR?

Like most women, I accept every task as a personal cause and do my best to do it in the best way.

Can you describe in maximum five words about what RADAR is doing or has done for you?

Everyone can contribute to improving road safety.