

Strengthening the cultural identity of the Danube region by building on common heritage of ART NOUVEAU

ART NOUVEAU 2

T1.2 Art Nouveau Exhibitions

MAK – Museum für angewandte Kunst

Project Manager: Kathrin Pokorny-Nagel

Project Assistant: Helena Grünsteidl

T1.2 Exhibitions

Summary of activities

- Coordinator: Anne-Katrin Rossberg (MAK)
- Partners: MoO, INP, IMM, MUO, STUBA and RIPCM
- 7 exhibitions organized under a common umbrella theme:
„Gesamtkunstwerk“
- First Online Meeting on October 19, 2020: discussion of first plans, ideas, and concepts.
- Second Online Meeting on February 22, 2021: presentations of definite concepts, budgets and timeline planned at the partner institutions.
- Each institution had a separate meeting with Sebastian Bonis concerning the budget.
- MAK had a separate meeting with INP & RIPCM on April 21, 2021

T1.2 Exhibitions

Summary of activities

- Third Online meeting on June 14th, 2021: MAK presented the exhibition concept, partners updated on their concepts, Oradea transmitted the message, that parts of the City Museum will be transformed into a Foundation, which will engage with national heritage → amendment of partnership agreement
- What's the status quo regarding the partners?
- Decision to have another meeting in period 3 (date not scheduled yet)

Thank you for your attention!