Travelling information to Budapest

By plane

Budapest Liszt Ferenc International Airport

Address: 1185 Budapest, Hungary

Tel: +36 (1) 296-7000

Web: <http://www.bud.hu/english>

Budapest Liszt Ferenc International Airport (BUD), formerly known as Budapest Ferihegy International Airport, is about 16 km from the city centre.

Airport facilities include duty free shops, ATMs, money exchange, post office, restaurants, baggage wrapping, short- and long-term parking, tourist information and car rental. The following car rental companies offer airport pickup in the terminal: Avis, Budget, Dollar, Alamo, Europcar, Hertz, National and Thrifty. E-Z is off terminal, accessible via shuttle. WiFi Internet access is available in all terminals.

Many major European and North American airlines either fly directly to Budapest or offer connections: http://www.bud.hu/english/passengers/flight\_information/destinations

Information about transportation from and to Budapest airport can be found here.

By train

There are 3 main international railway stations in Budapest: Eastern (Keleti), Western (Nyugati) and Southern (Déli). More than 50 trains a day provide direct links between Budapest and 25 other European capital cities. Trains to Vienna run every 3 hours, 7 times a day. There is also a popular network of Inter City trains linking Budapest with the main Hungarian towns. All three international railway stations are part of the Budapest Underground system, the Metro. The Déli and Keleti are stops on the Red (Number 2) line and the Nyugati is on the Blue (Number 3) line.

From Budapest there are direct connections from and to all immediate neighbours: Austria, Croatia, Romania, Slovakia.
